Work for Yourself AND Others!

Your longer-term success in this field (more than three years) will more likely be due to your ability to establish a successful private practice, rather than working exclusively for others.

Ideally, you want training that equips you for both:

- Spa-related employment to build confidence and experience in exchange for traditionally lower spa pay.
- The longer-term satisfaction and success of self-employment that affords
 - Significantly higher rates of profit (i.e., after expenses).
 - The freedom to set your own shifts and schedules.
 - The autonomy to choose the appropriate healing service for your clients.
 - Vastly higher levels of gratification and fulfillment arising from results in client healing and satisfaction.

The CMT Program is designed specifically to empower and resource you to have the best of both worlds: the benefits of working for others plus the advantages of long-term financial success and client satisfaction through private practice.
